Digital Memory Book

These memory book pages are available through Google Slides. Read directions on next page for more information.

Pages
5-23

Traditional Memory
Book

This memory book is used as a print-and-go method. Students will write all about their memories, then color and staple their books together.

Pages

Interactive Memory

The interactive memory book version is meant to be cut and glued together. There are many options for students with these.

You can give students AstroBrights or colored construction paper, and they can make a book with those. Or students can put it into their writing journals.
