READING:

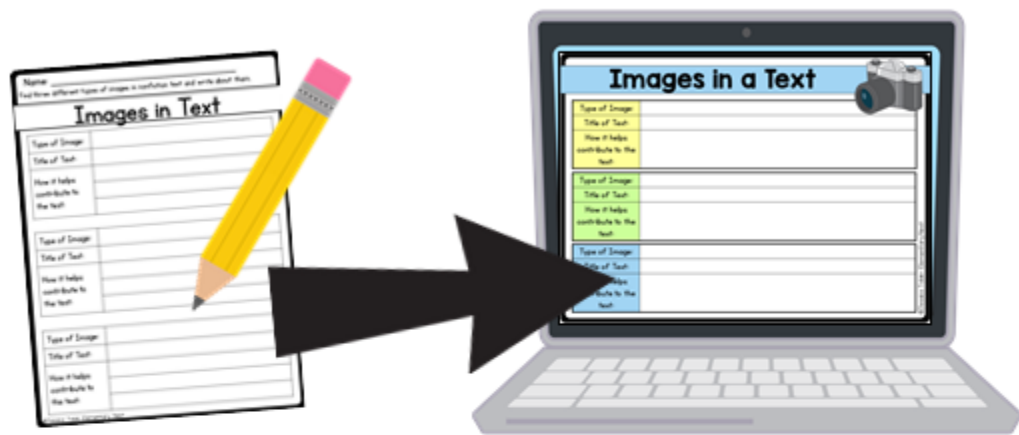

Informational DIGITAL GRAPHIC ORGANIZERS

Created by Jessica Tobin

Please read!

These digital graphic organizers are the same graphic organizers from my RI2 units. They've just been recreated horizontally and put into Google slides.

These graphic organizers are meant to be used with Google Slides.

To open each set of graphic organizers, click on the standard boxes on the following page. These links will open Google Slides presentations that contain between 6-12 digital graphic organizers that are specific to each standard.

What you need:

- A Google Classroom account

What to do:

- Open document using links on next page.
- Click "make a copy". This will be your master copy. Name it whatever you'd like.
- Make another copy to share with your students. Get the shareable link using the 'Share' button in the top right corner.

Options for sharing:

- Copy the specific slide you need and share it with your students.
- Share the entire presentation for them to fill out by a certain date or for use when they are reading independently.
- Create a graphic organizer folder for your students to access whichever ones they want/need.

Sample Pages

The image displays three overlapping sample pages for graphic organizers. The top-left page is titled "Main Topic" and includes a "Title:" field and three boxes labeled "Main Topic from Paragraph #1", "Main Topic from Paragraph #2", and "Main Topic from Paragraph #3". The top-right page is titled "Asking Questions" and includes an "Author:" field and a grid of question words: "Who", "What", "Where", "When", "Why", "How", "Did", and "Which". The bottom page is titled "Compare and Contrast" and features a magnifying glass icon over a table with two rows of "Text" and "Fact" columns. Each page includes a small cartoon girl illustration.

The image shows a laptop screen displaying the "Author's Point" graphic organizer. The screen also shows a sidebar with other organizer templates and a top menu bar with options like "File", "Edit", "View", "Insert", "Format", "Slide", "Arrange", "Tools", "Add-ons", and "Help". The main content area of the organizer includes a "Text Title:" field, an "Author:" field, and three rows of text input fields with corresponding "Type here" labels. The rows are color-coded: yellow, green, and blue. The bottom row contains the text "Describe how the reason supports the point the author is trying to make." and a "Type here" label. The bottom right corner of the organizer has the text "©Jessica Tobin - Elementary.net".
