READING: Literature DIGITAL PASSAGES

Created by Jessica Tobin

Please read!

These digital passages are the same reading passages from my RLI units. They've just been recreated horizontally and put into Google slides.

These reading passages are meant to be used with Google Slides.

To open each set of reading passages, click on the standard boxes on the following page. These links will open Google Slides presentations that contain between 5-10 digital passages that are specific to each RL standard.

What you need:

- A Google Classroom account

What to do:

- Open document using links on next page.
- Click "make a copy". This will be your master copy. Name it whatever you'd like.
- Make another copy to share with your students. Get the shareable link using the 'Share' button in the top right corner.

Options for sharing:

- Copy the specific slide you need and share it with your students.
- Share the entire presentation for them to fill out by a certain date or for use when they are reading independently.
- Create a graphic organizer folder for your students to access whichever ones they want/need.

Chores

"Beth, can you please sweep the basement?" my mom asked. "Sure", I told her, but before I knew it, my brother came running past me. He stole the broom out of my hand. "Sweeping is my chore! Beth can't sweep," he whined. "Nate, I didn't ask you to sweep. I wanted you to help me dust," Mom explained. But Nate only wanted to sweep. "Mom, I'll help you dust instead," I told her. "Thanks, Beth. That is very sweet of you," Mom said. It was a busy day full of chores.

1. Who said, "Thanks, Beth. That is very sweet of you?"
Underline it in the text in red.

2. Who said, "Sweeping is my chore! Beth can't sweep?"
Underline it in the text in green.

3. Who said, "I'll help you dust instead," I told her.

Zoo Pals

The lion and the macaw live in cages at the zoo that are next to each other. They hadn't had any food yet today and they did not know why. The macaw asked the lion if he knew where their food was. He said in the bucket at the top of his cage. The lion told the macaw to get on his head to get closer. The macaw squeezed into his cage and jumped onto his mane. They worked together to get their food.

Jump Rope Star

It was the day of the jump rope contest at her school. Jen knew she was going to win. Jen's goal was to jump rope for four minutes. Jen's mom told her if she beat her goal, then she would buy her an ice cream cone after school. Jen was about to start the contest. All her friends were around her. Her gym teacher blew the start whistle. She started jumping. Jen jumped for six minutes! She beat her goal!
