Luna's Adoption

About two years ago, my dog Sadie passed away. She was 12 years old. It's been a tough 2 years, but I'm finally ready for a new dog. A local pet store has adoption events every Saturday. I've been reading a lot of books and articles on raising a puppy. My mom told me a puppy wasn't a great idea because it would be a lot harder. Puppies need to be potty trained. They have more energy. However, I know that I am more responsible now. I can handle a puppy. That's what I want. The morning of my future dog's adoption is here. We parked the car and headed towards the pet store. In crates outside were six dogs. Three tiny black puppies barked excitedly. Two white adult dogs napped. One black and brown adult dog sat and smiled. As soon as I caught eyes with this dog, I knew she was mine. I needed this dog. I walked over to the crate and put my fingers through the crate. The dog immediately licked them over and over. An employee walked over and told me this was Luna. Luna, an adult dog, had to be

STANDARDS

RL2.1	Ask and answer such questions as who, what, where, when, why, and how to demonstrate understanding of key details in a text.
RL2.2	Recount stories, including fables and folktales from diverse cultures, and determine their central message, lesson, or moral.
RL2.3	Describe how characters in a story respond to major events and challenges.
RL2.4	Describe how words and phrases (e.g., regular beats, alliteration, rhymes, repeated lines) supply rhythm and meaning in a story, poem, or song.
RL2.5	Describe the overall structure of a story, including describing how the beginning introduces the story and the ending concludes the action.
RL2.6	Acknowledge differences in the points of view of characters, including by speaking in a different voice for each character when reading dialogue aloud.
RL2.7	Use information gained from the illustrations and words in a print or digital text to demonstrate understanding of its characters, setting, or plot.
RL2.9	Compare and contrast two or more versions of the same story (e.g., Cinderella stories) by different authors or from different cultures.

These digital task cards are the same reading passages from my RL2 comprehension task cards. They've just been recreated into full-sized Slides.

These reading passages are meant to be used with Google Slides.

To open each set of comprehension task cards, click on the standard boxes on the underlined following page. These links will open Google Slides presentations that contain 5 passages per standard that are specific to each RL standard.

What you need:
-A Google Classroom account

What to do:
-Open document using links on next page.
-Click "make a copy". This will be your master copy. Name it whatever you'd like.
