You're wrong about firemen.

I respectfully disagree that firemen are more important than police because...

I don't agree with your thoughts on firemen.

What I hear you saying about firemen is that they are some of the bravest.

I don't think that's right about firemen.

I would like to add that I think firemen are necessary for more than just fire.

You aren't right about Chinese New Year.

I have an opinion about the firecrackers on Chinese New Year.

I think you're opinion on Chinese New Year is dumb.

I am a bit confused. Can you explain more about when the holiday begins?

You don't know the real meaning of Chinese New Year.

I disagree with your opinions about Chinese New Year because...

I cannot believe you said that bananas are better than bananas.

I believe that this means a banana is ripe, it turns green.

Ripe bananas are not better than green bananas.

I don't agree that ripe bananas are better because...

You don't know much about bananas.

Can you explain more about why bananas get spots?

You are not correct about apes.

I agree with your statement about apes being quite humanlike.

I think you're opinion about apes is dumb.

I am confused about how apes are different from chimps. Can you explain?

For some reason, I think you're wrong about apes, but I don't know why.

I'm wondering more about an ape's habitat and activity in the wild.
