Is That My Easter Basket?

Easter is my favorite holiday because I get an Easter basket and we get to have an Easter egg hunt with my entire family. Last year, I got a basket full of Reese's peanut butter candies. The year before, I got a basket full of Twix and M&M's. I was eager to see what my basket would be filled with this year.

As soon as I woke up, I put on my Easter bunny slippers and knocked on my parents' door. I wanted to make sure they knew I was awake and ready to celebrate. I heard them yell, "Come in!" They told me to go get my baby brother out of his toddler bed, and then meet them in the kitchen. Mom and Dad made us pancakes and bacon for Easter. During our breakfast, I kept peeking into the living room. I spotted a basket with a pink, shiny item in it. I didn't want my parents to know I was sneaking a peek, so I couldn't stare too long. What could that have been? A pink, shiny thing? That isn't candy!

Finally, it was time to check. I brought us. I walked up to my Easter basket. I was in shock. I stood there, staring. I could not believe it. Mom said, "Anna, what did the Easter basket say?" I replied, "Is this my Easter basket?" I really got a pink iPad?" Mom and Dad and walked over to see.
