MLK JR.

Reading and Writing

The image features a collection of educational materials for Martin Luther King Jr. Day. In the foreground, a cartoon illustration of Martin Luther King Jr. is shown from the chest up, wearing a dark suit and tie, with his right hand raised in a gesture of peace. He is standing behind a brown podium. Behind him are several worksheets:

- Ways to Be Peaceful: An orange worksheet with a "Name:" field and a "Directions: Write four ways that you can be peaceful." instruction. It has four sections, each starting with "I can..." and followed by horizontal lines for writing. A hand-drawn peace sign is in the top right corner.
- Dreams For Our World: A light blue worksheet with a "Name:" field and a "Directions: Write what you would like to see for our world." instruction. It features a speech bubble that says "I have a dream..." and several lines for writing.
- Martin Luther King Jr. Vocabulary: A white worksheet with a "Name:" field and a "Directions: Write words next to correct" instruction. It lists several terms in a table:

segregation	speech
racism	prejudice
protest	equality

Below the table are several rows of text with blank spaces for writing definitions or examples.
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Card: A blue card with a cartoon illustration of Martin Luther King Jr. speaking at a podium. Below the illustration, it says "Martin Luther King, Jr." and has a "Name:" field at the bottom.
